Mr. John S. Warner, Legislative Counsel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Warner:

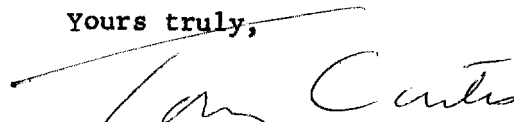

Thank you for giving me CIA's feelings about the comments of Premier Khrushchev while he was in this country.

It is important that the continual process of self-investigation be carried on by all portions of the government to assure that we are working effectively. Perhaps by his statement Mr. Khrushchev has done us a service in reawakening the spirit of self-investigation.

Also, as a member of the Joint Economic Committee's Subcommittee on Economic Statistics, I had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Dulles give a statement on the economic strengths and weaknesses of the Soviet Union. Both he and his organization are to be congratulated on his fine research and analysis of the situation.

With best wishes.

Yours truly,

THOMAS B. CURTIS
